

General Terms and Conditions of BUYER

1. Introduction

1.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Parties, these General Terms and Conditions of Purchase (“Conditions”) govern all topics related to the offering and performance or supply of the Goods and/or of the Services (when applicable) (hereinafter collectively the “Work”) from SELLER to BUYER.

1.2 The Conditions supersede any and all prior oral and written quotations, communications, agreements and understandings of the Parties in respect of the supply of Goods and/ or providing Services and shall apply in preference to and supersede any and all terms and conditions of any order placed by BUYER and any other terms and conditions submitted to BUYER by SELLER. SELLER’s commencement of providing the Services or delivery of Goods shall be deemed or construed as acceptance of these Conditions. Any communication or conduct of SELLER which confirms an agreement for the realization of the Work by SELLER, as well as acceptance by SELLER of any realization of the Work shall constitute an acceptance by SELLER of the Conditions.

1.3 The Conditions may only be modified or waived by a duly executed written agreement between BUYER and SELLER. In that case a specific agreement will be signed by the Parties.

1.4 The headings contained in the Conditions are included for mere convenience of reference and shall not affect their construction or interpretation.

1.5 By making a quotation and/or supplying Goods or performing services on the basis of the Conditions, SELLER agrees to the applicability of the Conditions. BUYER shall be entitled to update and/or amend these Conditions regularly and by and as of the moment of notifying SELLER of such update or amendment or by sending SELLER the updated or amended Conditions, these revised Conditions shall apply to all dealings between BUYER and SELLER.

2.2 The Quotation shall be irrevocably and shall remain binding upon the SELLER until the date as set forth in BUYER’s request for Quotation.

2.3 If requested by BUYER, the Quotation shall be submitted on a form identical to the Quotation Form attached to the request for Quotation.

2.4 The SELLER represents that it has familiarized itself with the bidding documents attached to the request for Quotation, that it has given BUYER written notice of all conflicts and errors it has discovered in them and that no additional information is required to enable him to perform the Work.

2.5 The SUPPLIER has notably filled in properly and in good faith all documents required by BUYER, in the form required by BUYER.

Sub-SELLER contracted with the SELLER shall not be changed except with the written consent of BUYER.

2.8 BUYER shall have the right to refuse any Quotation for any reason and at any time.

3. Agreement

3.1 Conclusion. The Agreement will be issued by BUYER in writing, by fax, electronically, or otherwise, depending on the business practices of the BUYER and will be binding to Parties at SELLER’s acceptance in writing, by fax, electronically or otherwise pursuant to BUYER’s instruction. Any modifications of or comments to the Agreement by SELLER are binding only, if accepted prior such modification become effective by BUYER in writing. Performing of any part of an Agreement by SELLER will operate as SELLER’s unconditional acceptance of the Agreement.

3.2 Scope changes. BUYER reserves the right to make changes to the scope of Work under an Agreement and to instruct the SELLER to make any variations to the Work (i.e. any alteration of the Work whether by way of addition, modification or reduction). On receipt of BUYER’s instruction, the SELLER shall, if in his opinion any such variation is likely to prevent or prejudice him from or in fulfilling any of his obligations under the Agreement, notify BUYER thereof with all supporting details.

The SELLER shall submit to BUYER, as soon as reasonably practicable but prior to implementing the variation, a written statement setting forth any effect (which shall be fair and reasonable) such variation would have on the Work, on the price and on the Agreement (including the schedule, the performance guarantees and the warranties).

Whether an agreement was reached or not on all matters identified in such statement, BUYER shall then decide, through a written order, whether or not to effect the variation concerned. The SELLER shall have a right to make proposals to BUYER for variations. In no event shall SELLER carry out a variation except as directed in writing by BUYER. Such variations will become a wholly part of the Agreement, therefore, the SELLER shall be bound by the variations as though they were originally stated in the Agreement.

In order to be valid and binding any change to the Agreement shall be made in writing and approved by the Parties. Approval by BUYER of drawings, documents, samples or proposals shall not imply approval by BUYER of a change of the Agreement unless explicitly confirmed in writing by BUYER. The SELLER shall not change the design or specifications of the Work without the prior specific written consent of BUYER. If the variations or additional work demanded by BUYER are not feasible or cannot be carried out at prices or conditions acceptable to BUYER, then BUYER shall have the right to demand realization of the Work in its original form or to rescind the Agreement in whole or in part. In that case BUYER is only obligated to compensate the SELLER at the pro rata price for the Work already performed and delivered to BUYER.

4. Prices and Payment

4.1 Prices. SELLER shall perform the Agreement at the price(s) mentioned in the Agreement. Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing, prices stated in the Agreement are (i) fixed and firm, (ii) not subject to any changes and inclusive (iii) of all taxes, duties, fees, charges and (iv) of the costs of packaging and delivery in accordance with the Incoterms indicated in the Agreement.

4.2 Price changes. In the event of changes to scope of Work result in a material change in the Agreement price, Parties shall negotiate in good faith such price change. If a change results in a reduction of the Work by the SELLER, BUYER shall be entitled to a proportional price decrease.

4.3 Payment. Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing, BUYER shall pay the agreed price, corresponding to the one indicated in the Agreement, and corresponding to the amount invoiced by SELLER for the Work supplied, by bank transfer within 60 (sixty) days, date of invoice. If the term of payment agreed is "45 days end of month", 45 days will be added to the end of the month of invoice issuance.

BUYER may authorize any Affiliated company to effect the payment (in whole or a part of) of the amounts due by BUYER. Such payment shall be considered as a payment made by BUYER, which will discharge BUYER from its respective payment obligation towards SELLER. Any interest charged by SELLER for delayed payments shall not exceed the minimum rate applicable according to the applicable law of the Agreement.

4.4 Invoices. SELLER's invoices should include any legal requirement and notably the following information:

- (e) The name and address of the SELLER;
- (g) Any discount (if applicable)
- (h) Conditions of discount for early payment
- (i) Payment term (as agreed between the Parties).

4.5 Set-off. SELLER recognizes BUYER's right to set off any amounts owed by BUYER or its Affiliated company to SELLER with any amounts owed by SELLER according to the Agreement.

Goods: Seller warrants that Goods covered by the Agreement strictly conform to any and all samples, written descriptions, formulas or other descriptions (collectively "Specifications") furnished or specified by BUYER and are merchantable, free from defect, and fit for their intended purpose. BUYER has relied on SELLER's skill and judgment to select or furnish the Goods for a particular purpose, conform to the requirements under law and other government regulations in force in the delivery country of the Goods as well as the applicable international standards in the fields such as quality, health and environment.

SELLER further warrants that the Goods are new, and will be free of defects in workmanship and materials, therefore, in the event that a defect affecting the use of the Goods for which the Goods is intended, would be discovered by the BUYER after the delivery of the Goods, the SELLER will at BUYER's exclusive choice, either (i) reimburse BUYER for the purchase price or (ii) repair or (iii) replace any and all Goods. SELLER agrees that BUYER shall have the benefit of all seller' and manufacturers' warranties and guarantees, , applicable to the Goods. The Documents provided along with the Agreement incorporate by reference any and all representations, warranties (express or implied and whether oral or in writing), and other promises made by SELLER prior to or at the time the Agreement is made, including without limitation, those contained in any written descriptions of the Goods.

Raw Materials: In addition to the above, SELLER warrants that any raw materials furnished shall comply strictly with the SELLER published specifications, or (if SELLER has agreed to furnish raw materials complying with BUYER's Specifications), with BUYER's Specifications.

5.2 Quality inspections and testing. In order to assure that the Goods will comply with the requirements of the Agreement, SELLER shall diligently and continuously control and test the quality of the materials and the operations during manufacture/ production, storage and delivery of the Goods. In case of serial, continuous and batch manufacture/ production of the Goods or parts thereof SELLER shall retain quality and production records, including those of its raw materials, and samples, for not less than one year. BUYER reserves the right to entrust the inspection and/or testing to third parties. SELLER shall make available to BUYER's inspector, free of charge, the measurement equipment required to perform the inspection and/or testing with sufficient accuracy.

Certificates of conformity to specifications of the Agreement shall be issued by competent and qualified institutes.

Any cost for testing, including but not limited to mechanical, simulation, chemical, hydrostatic, X-ray, ultrasonic and laboratory tests, the compilation of reports and the supply of certificates, as well as any personal expenses for required third party inspectors, including but not limited to cost for travel, living and salaries, shall be borne by SELLER, unless specified otherwise in the Agreement.

Costs for re-testing and/or re-inspection due to any non-conformity appearing from earlier tests or inspections shall be borne by SELLER's account. These costs shall include BUYER's costs for salaries during working and traveling hours, as well as cost for boarding and lodging.

Prior to delivery, BUYER shall have the right to inspect Goods at SELLER's facility prior to their delivery. Should any inspection or test by BUYER indicate a non-compliance to the Specifications, BUYER may reject such Goods. SELLER shall not deliver, nor shall BUYER be obliged to pay for, such rejected Goods.

Upon first use, and within a reasonable time as (notwithstanding any inspection pursuant to the above mentioned clause), BUYER shall have the right to inspect the Goods to determine their conformity with the Specifications. If all or any part of the Goods do not comply with the Specifications, BUYER may reject all or any part of the Goods, whereupon such rejected Goods shall be promptly removed by SELLER or sent to SELLER at SELLER's cost and the price of such rejected Goods shall be refunded to BUYER by SELLER (if already paid) or shall be credited (if still owing). In either case, if BUYER so directs in writing, SELLER shall promptly replace such non-conforming Goods with Goods conforming to the Specifications. SELLER shall bear all direct and incidental costs of rejection and removal, as well as other damages or losses incurred by BUYER. Performance or non-performance of any inspection, check or test does not relieve SELLER of any obligation, warranty or liability under the Agreement.

5.3 Acceptance. BUYER has the right, but not the obligation, to check the Goods on any visible defects and on any non-conformity with the agreed specifications. Payment, use or (re)sale of the Goods does not imply acceptance of the Goods in question by BUYER. Final, provisional or partial acceptance of the Goods shall only appear from BUYER's explicit and written acknowledgment thereof.

5.4 Non-compliance. If the Goods are not in conformity with the specifications, BUYER may, at no cost to BUYER, choose between:

- correction of the non-conformity by the SELLER;
- replacement of the Goods by the SELLER;
- replacement of the Goods by equivalent Goods, which are in Conformity with the Specifications and at SELLER's cost;
- termination of the Agreement in whole or in part and return of the Goods already delivered against reimbursement of price, without prejudice to BUYER's rights to claim damages and other compensation.

BUYER shall further be entitled to reject any Goods, which are delivered (i) not at the agreed time, (ii) not in the agreed volume and/or quantity, (iii) in inappropriate or damaged packaging or (iv) with other defect(s), without prejudice to BUYER's right to compensation for the losses and damages suffered as a result of SELLER's non-compliance.

Returning of rejected Goods shall be for the account and risk of SELLER. If requested, SELLER shall repair at no costs to BUYER rejected Goods as far as possible or necessary and leave them in free use with BUYER until BUYER has received Goods in replacement, which meet the relevant requirements and specifications, and the rejected Goods can be returned.

In case of breach of any SELLER's warranty, SELLER shall, at BUYER's option, either (i) reimburse BUYER for the purchase price or (ii) repair or (iii) replace any and all non conforming or defective Goods, which will not properly function or perform or get defective. Repaired or replaced Goods or parts will be warranted for a new period of warranty from the repair or replacement date. The warranty period shall be extended by any period(s) during which the Goods have been out of operation or use or their first operational use has been delayed as a result of a defect to which this warranty applies.

If SELLER fails to comply with its obligations set forth under this warranty, BUYER is, upon formal notification to SELLER, entitled to carry out the repair work or replacement itself or to have it carried out by a third party for SELLER's account, without prejudice to SELLER's obligations under the warranty.

11.6 Intellectual property. "Intellectual Property Right" (IPR) means any patent, utility model, registered design, trademark, service mark, copyright, application for any of those rights, trade and business names (including internet domain names and email address names), goodwill, unregistered trademarks and service marks, know how, database rights, rights in designs and any associated rights or rights of the same or similar effect or nature subsisting in each case at any time and in any jurisdiction.

SELLER warrants that the Services, Goods, or any other items purchased hereunder by BUYER do not infringe any IPR and agrees to assume the defense of any proceedings brought against BUYER claiming that such Services, Goods, or other items infringe any patent or other IPR, and to pay any damages or other sums that may be awarded in any such proceedings and indemnify BUYER against all other costs of such defense including (without limitation) its legal fees. SELLER further agrees to indemnify BUYER from all costs, damages, and expenses arising out of claims for infringement of IPR in the use, either by BUYER or its customers, of such Goods or Services.

Where any Specification of Goods or Services has been provided by BUYER, the copyright, design right or other Intellectual Property therein shall remain the property of BUYER. Unless otherwise agreed, all final reports, prints, designs and drawings produced by SELLER in the course of performance of the Agreement shall become the property of BUYER and SELLER hereby assigns to BUYER all rights therein.

11.7 The Dow Chemical Company's Intellectual Property Rights. SELLER is not entitled to make use of or refer to any trademark, trade name, domain name, patent, design, copyright, or other intellectual property right of BUYER, any of its affiliates or customer(s) of BUYER, unless prior obtained written consent of BUYER.

11.8 Ownership of developments. All intellectual property rights and know-how relating to the Work generated and/or developed by SELLER or its Sub-SELLER under the Agreement for the benefit of the BUYER will be exclusively owned by BUYER immediately upon their creation, and without any condition, and shall at first request be fully assigned and transferred at no extra costs to BUYER. SELLER will procure that the same obligations will apply to each of its Sub-SELLERS. Notably, if Work includes non tangible assets such as intellectual property rights on plans and/or maps, such plans and/or maps shall be transferred to BUYER from time to time as soon as the transfer is requested by BUYER.

11.9 Confidentiality. SELLER shall not reveal to any third person that BUYER has purchased or contracted to purchase Goods or Services, or advertise that it is a SELLER to BUYER. SELLER agrees to keep BUYER's confidential information confidential and not to disclose or use it except as may be necessary for performance of the Agreement or under applicable law. The SELLER shall comply with such obligation during 10 years after the termination of the Agreement.

11.10 External publication. SELLER is not entitled to refer to (part of) the Agreement in external communication or publication without prior written consent of BUYER.

11.11 Assigning. BUYER may, without any prior agreement being required, assign or otherwise transfer the Agreement in whole or part to any Affiliated company of The Dow Chemical Company or to any company acquiring the assets of the BUYER related to the part of the Agreement to be assigned or transferred. Save as so provided, the Agreement is not assignable, in whole or in part, to any third party, by either Party without the prior written consent of the other, and any purported assignment shall be void.

11.12 Conflict between the Agreement and the Conditions. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Agreement and the Conditions, or any other document, the terms of the Agreement shall prevail over the Conditions.

11.13 Privacy. BUYER and SELLER each act as an independent controller (or equivalent role under applicable law) with respect to any personal data exchanged or otherwise processed in connection with this Work. Each party independently determines its own purposes and means of processing and is solely responsible for complying with its obligations under applicable data protection law. Each party will use personal data received from the other party only as reasonably necessary to perform, administer, and enforce this Work and to comply with law; will restrict access on a need-to-know basis subject to confidentiality obligations; and will not disclose such personal data except to recipients bound to protect it or as required by law. Each party will handle data subject requests and regulatory inquiries for which it is responsible and will reasonably cooperate where a request or inquiry primarily relates to the other party's processing. For information about how BUYER processes personal data relating to suppliers and their personnel, see BUYER's Supplier Privacy Notice (available at <https://legal.dow.com/en-us/privacy-statement/supplier-privacy-notice.html>), which is provided here for transparency purposes and does not modify or limit the parties' obligations related to this Work.

11.14 Information Security. Each party will maintain reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect personal data and confidential information received from the other party against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or loss. If a party provides the other party's personal data or confidential information to a subcontractor, cloud provider, or other third party for a purpose permitted under this Work, it will ensure that the recipient is bound by written obligations at least as protective as this Section and will remain responsible for that recipient's compliance. A party that confirms a security incident involving the other party's personal data or confidential information will notify the other party in writing without undue delay and, in any event, within forty-eight (48) hours, and will reasonably cooperate to mitigate and remediate the incident. Upon reasonable notice and no more than once annually (unless a security incident occurs or a material risk relating to this Work is identified), a party will provide reasonable information (including summaries of relevant third-party security assessments, where available) sufficient to confirm compliance with this Section, subject to appropriate confidentiality restrictions.

11.15 Artificial Intelligence. SELLER will not use, and will not permit any third party to use, any BUYER data (including personal data and confidential information disclosed by BUYER) as or in AI training data, or as AI input for any generative AI system, without BUYER's prior written authorization. Any AI used by SELLER in performing this Work must comply with applicable AI law. BUYER is entitled to seek injunctive or equitable relief for any breach of this Section. Nothing in this section restricts BUYER's internal use of data in accordance with its own policies and applicable law.

12. Governing law and jurisdiction

12.1 The Parties' rights and obligations arising out of these Conditions shall be governed, construed and enforced according to the laws of France, excluding principles of conflict of laws. The United Nations Convention on Agreements for the International Sale of Goods, concluded at Vienna on 11th of April 1980, shall not be applicable to the Agreement.

12.2 The Parties agree that any suits, actions or proceedings that may be instituted by any Party shall be initiated exclusively before the Commercial Court of Paris, France ("Tribunal des activités économiques de Paris").

13. Notices

Any notice required to be given under the Agreement shall, except otherwise specifically provided, be in writing in English.

Any such notice shall be addressed to the receiving Party's registered office or other such address as the Parties may from time to time notify to each other. Any notice or document shall be deemed to be given:

- (a) if delivered by hand, at the time of delivery; or
- (b) if sent by registered letter, at 10:00 a.m. (Buyer's place of business) on the second Business Day after the date of posting or, if sent by airmail from a country other than that of the receiving party's address, on the fifth Business Day following the day of posting; or
- (c) if sent by facsimile, when dispatched, subject to confirmation of uninterrupted transmission by a transmission report, provided that any notice dispatched after 5:00 p.m. (Buyer's place of business) on any Business Day or at any time on a day which is not a Business Day shall be deemed to have been given at 9:00 a.m. (Buyer's place of business) on the next Business Day; or
- (d) if sent by electronic mail, when actually received in readable form but subject to the same provisions regarding dispatch and receipt after 5:00 p.m. (Buyer's place of business) as apply to notices sent by facsimile.
